

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair is not doing so and its license should be challenged. They are breaking the law.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.